Gail is a Certified Public Accountant with more than 27 years of public accounting experience. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Millersville University and is dedicated to helping clients navigate complex tax matters with confidence and clarity.

As a Senior Manager, Gail specializes in individual tax planning and compliance, tax projections, tax notice resolution, and consulting services for high-net-worth individuals and closely held business owners. She is known for her responsive client service, practical problem-solving approach, and ability to simplify complex tax issues into understandable and actionable guidance. Gail enjoys building long-term client relationships and helping individuals and families make informed tax and financial decisions.

Throughout her career, Gail has developed extensive experience working with clients on tax compliance, multi-year tax planning strategies, IRS and state tax notice resolution, and proactive planning designed to minimize tax liabilities and avoid surprises.

Outside of the office, Gail enjoys an active lifestyle that includes golfing, walking, fitness activities, reading, and solving puzzles. She also enjoys traveling, exploring new destinations, and spending quality time with her family, friends, and grandchildren.
